Your Commitment: You are choosing to place your child in a performance school, NOT a Day Care. This will require some commitment on your part. There will be travel to competitions on the occasional weekend, getting your child to testings and demos, and making sure they have the required gear for all competitions & performances. Annual membership and renewal in our TKD association is also required. I have read and understand the above tuition statement & my obligation to TPF as an active member and Parent/Guardian of named student. Initial:_____
